YES Carolina!

January 13th, 2009

Jimmy Bailey, former member of the South Carolina House of Representatives, brought us news of the Charleston based, YEScarolina, whose mission is to teach entrepreneurship to young South Carolinians of all socio-economic backgrounds and to enhance their economic productivity by improving their business, academic and life skills. An offshoot of the National Foundation for Teaching Entrepreneurship, it is a non-profit organization created to offer South Carolina educators the opportunity to utilize a curriculum written by acclaimed business teacher Steve Mariotti, founder of NFTE. From 2003 to 2008, 380 teachers have been trained. In 2009 YEScarolina will offer this training opportunity to 100 public school teachers without charge. The value of this scholarship is $1000.

Guest speaker, Jimmy Bailey

The local group was spearheaded by Tommy Baker and Anita Zucker in 2004. It started in the city with the help of Mayor Riley and advanced statewide with the help of Bobby Harrell, state representative. In addition, a summer camp, BIZ CAMP, was sponsored by area Rotary Clubs and gave 15 local students three weeks to learn, polish and prepare a business plan for their own potential business venture.

Responding to the training course one teacher wrote, “Thanks so much for starting such a positive learning experience and fun course for the students to instantly apply to their lives!”

Grant to the Rural Mission
We received the following letter of thanks:

Dear Carroll and Andy:

The Rural Mission is very appreciative of the grant from the Rotary Club of Charleston to assist our work in providing decent housing for very needy families on the Sea Islands. These funds were used the week after Christmas to help support two groups of college students seeking mission experience. I have attached pictures of the groups and the houses they worked on. One group of college students came from First Baptist Church in Mauldin, SC. The second group came from First Broad Street United Methodist Church in Kingsport, Tenn.

Thank you again,
Chris Brooks.
