ATTENTION ROTARIANS

We have less than a week to go before the Rotary Charity Duck Race on June 12th and we need you help! The Duck Race is our big fundraiser!

To date, we have around 2,000 of our 5,000 ducks adopted. We have committed to pay $5 each for the 5,000 ducks whether we get them adopted or not. So, right now, we are losing around $5,000 on this project. More significantly, we are losing out on a wonderful opportunity to raise money for our two charities – The Lowcountry Foodbank and American Red Cross. We will make $10 on every duck we get adopted once we pass the 2,500 mark.

Other Rotary Clubs much smaller than ours (East Cooper Breakfast and Summer-ville) have more duck adoptions than we do. We can, and will, get to and exceed our 5,000 duck goal.

As you heard (if you were at the meeting today) from the speaker from Daniel Island, please ask people in your “circle of influence:” family, friends, neighbors, work associates, other network associates, etc. to adopt ducks. Don’t forget to look through your checkbook for people you pay money to – they owe you a favor.

If we all do this we can each easily come up with 20 to 50 duck adoptions. That will put us back on track and, most importantly, make a big difference for people in need served by our two duck race charities. Remember, for each duck sale of $10.00, the Lowcountry Food Bank can deliver 10 meals. Be sure to do your part to help us help the community!

Last Week's Program - Piccolo Spoleto Festival:

June 1, 2010: Valerie Morris introduced the Rotary Club's featured guest, Ms. Ellen Moryl, Director of the Charleston Office of Cultural Affairs. Ms. Moryl spotlighted some of the kick off events that have already been held successfully. In her words, "it is just thrilling to see how the young kids play like pros...the magic and beauty of the arts should be in everyone's life."

Ellen Moryl & Valerie Morris

The festival is so important to the life and economy of Charleston and is an important piece of the city's international reputation. Recently, the festival was written about in the New York Times and Wall Street Journal, among many other publications and internet outlets.

A recent Darla Moore School of Business survey pegged the economic impact of the full run of the festival at about $67 million. Tickets for events range from $7 - $51 with many free access events available across the city. All in, the city will produce nearly 900 events in two weeks.

Ms. Moryl introduced fellow Rotarian John Tecklenburg (professor at The Citadel) who provided an overview of the Charleston Jass Initiative. Of note, one of John's uncles was the well-renowned jazz innovator Joseph "Fud" Livingston, who had an illustrious career as a big band arranger working with the likes of Duke Ellington and many other greats.

John Tecklenburg

John then provided our meeting with an exceptional treat when the band took up their instruments (AND VOICE) to play "I'm Through with Love." What an entertaining time! Be sure not to miss their work during the Charleston Spoleto.

The meeting concluded when featured guest, Ellen Moryl, ran the drawing for several tickets to Spoleto events.

In Memory :

Rotarian Barry L. Gleim passed away this past weekend. Barry was a Rotarian for 41.5 years and a member of our club for 16.5 years. He was a Multiple Paul Harris Fellow and a Rotary Club of Charleston Fellow. He loved Rotary and his life truly exemplified the very best of what Rotary stands for in the lives of so many. He will be greatly missed by us all!!

Wellness Tip: Headache Sufferers...It's Not All In Your Head

Today's stressful and fast-paced workplace environment is enough to give anyone a headache. In fact, the worksite is a haven for headache triggers—but don't let that get you down. If you suffer from headaches, the focus is for you to gain control over them so they no longer control you!
